

UPPER WHARFEDALE HERITAGE GROUP

Summer Visit on Thursday 6th July 2017

Members £1, Guests £2

Start: 11am, Finish: 1pm

Visit to Leeds University Brotherton Library Special Collections

Led by Richard High

Collections Engagement Librarian, Richard High, will introduce the Special Collections with an examination of specially selected items relating to the Yorkshire Dales, including photographs, maps and items from the Leeds Archive of Vernacular Culture. We will also have an opportunity to see some of the other treasures looked after by the University Library.

www.uwhg.org.uk

Meeting point: Entrance of the Parkinson Building, Leeds University, Woodhouse Lane, Leeds, LS2 9JT. For disabled access information, email UWHG at address below.

Transport: Arriving by bus or taxi is recommended as car parking is very limited and by arrangement only. The No 1 bus from Leeds Railway Station stops at the Parkinson Building.

Booking: Places are not limited but please email hm.steele@ntlworld.com to let us know that you will be attending.