

UPPER WHARFEDALE HERITAGE GROUP

Summer Walk on Monday 3rd June 2019

Members £1, Guests £2

Arrive: 11am, Finish: Approx. 2.30pm

The Hidden Mills of Smelthouses

Led by Janis Heward and Liz Dent

Archaeologist Janis Heward and local historian Liz Dent lead a walk around Smelthouses in Nidderdale, describing the development and demise of the local 18th and 19th century mills. Their walk will be illustrated by features still to be found in the area and not normally accessible to the public

Photos © Janis Heward

Meeting Point: Driveway to Rays Farm, Smelthouses, HD3 4DJ. Grid Ref: SE 190 643. Map: 1:25,000 OS Explorer 298.

Parking: In field provided at Rays Farm or on-street on B6165 in Low Laithe and walk approx. 0.5 mile up footpath from B6165 to Smelthouses.

Booking: Places are limited as we will visit private gardens. Email hm.steele@ntlworld.com by 31st May to reserve your place.

Terrain: Approx. 1 mile on Public Rights of Way and in gardens, with short inclines. Supportive footwear required.

Other Useful Information: Bring packed lunch. Toilet available en route and at Pateley Bridge. No dogs please.

