

UPPER WHARFEDALE HERITAGE GROUP

Summer Walk on Thursday 4 May 2017

Cost: Members £1, Guests £2

Start: 10.30am, Finish: 3.30pm

The Ribblehead Construction Camps

Led by Dr David Johnson

Photo: Ingleborough Archaeology Group

Dr David Johnson, local archaeologist and leader of an excavation of a structure close to the viaduct, will provide an archaeological insight into the railway camps and the sources of raw materials. During the walk, David will interpret some of the many lumps and bumps which remain on the site.

Car parking: on the East side of the Ribblehead road junction. GR: SD 765 793

Meeting point: to the West of the junction, away from the road.

Terrain: mostly graded paths and former tramway beds, some rough ground, minimal ascent. Strong footwear advised.

Lunch: at The Station Inn or bring a packed lunch.
